LIEUT. W. A.DAY NOW ON TRIAL

Same Court That Acquitted Major Waller Now Hearing His Case.

(By Associated Press.) MANILA. April 17.—The mixed court-martial which tried Major Littleton W. T. Waller, of the Marine Corps, on the charge of executing natives of Samar without trial, to-day began the trial of Lieutenant H. A. Day, of the Marine Corps, on the same charge. Lieutenant Day testified in his own defense. He said the man shot January 19th was a spy, who was shot by Major Waller's spy, who was shot by Major Waller's orders, and added: "I ordered Private Kresge to fire at his head and ordered Megee to fire at the center of his neck. After the shoot-ing, I saw a convulsive shudder of the man's shoulders, placed my own revolver to his forehead and shot him dead. I ordered the police to leave the body on the ground as an example to the na-

Major Waller testified that he ordered the shooting of eleven men January 20th, but denied ordering the execution of a man January 19th. He admitted he was very ill at the time.

Surgeon Love testified that Major Waller's temperature January 19th was 105.

DeSmet De-Mayer, heartily endorsed the suggestion, preposed that the House continue sitting to-day until the House continue sitting to-day until the question was settled. The iSocialists protested against the adoption of the proposal, but the Premier insisted on its adoption. M. Van Der Veldt, the Socialist leader, criticised the Government's attitude, Instead of examing his olive branch, he asserted, the Premier effered fresh proposation. Premier offered fresh provocation.

Socialists' shouts of "Trickery!" Trickery!" 'It will be the signal for a revolution!" followed the Premier's remarks.

at this juncture, M. Van Der Veldt crossed the floor and held a brief conversation with the Premier, during which M. Troclet (Socialist) cried: "Then you want blood to flow to-morrow?"

The Premier did not believe that universal suffrage would be conducive to the maintenance of free institutions in Belgium. The Government was prepared Belgium. The Government was prepared to examine, hereafter, arrangements cal-culated to improve the conditions of the people, but it would not agree to adopt universal suffrage, pure and simple. The Premier then invited the Chamber to reject the proposed consideration of the proposal to revise the Constitution.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a called meeting of the Board of Directors of the Virginia Trust Company, held at 11 o'clock A. M. this I'th day of April, 1902, the president referred to the sudden death of Mr. JOHN MORTON, secretary and treasurer of the company, and a committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions of respect to his memory. The following report of that committee was unanimously adopted:

"Truly, in the midst of life we are in death." This is brought forcibly before us when we reflect upon the sudden demise of our secretary and treasurer, who had faithfully served this company since its organization ten years ago. JOHN MORTON, whose loss we mourn, possessed in an extraordinary degree the qualities which make up true manhoad, of genial disposition, sunny temperament, unshaken fidelity and loyal to every trust committed to his care, he gathcred friends who were linked to him with shooks of steel. As he lived, so he died. Always at his post and just as ne was about to begin his daily duties, on the morning of April 16, 1902, the angel of death touched him and he was ushered into the presence of his Maker, in whose service he had ever been ready to make any sacrifice. His life was gentle and his death painless. We bow with humble submission to the decree of 'Him who knoweth, best,' and the greatest tribute we can pay to the memory of our departed associate is to endeavor to emulate his example of a noble and virtuous life.

Be it resolved, first, That our sincere sympathies are extended to the sister and brothers of the deceased in their affliction and we pray that the 'Great Healer' may send to them Ilis consolation in their distress.

Second. That this Board attend his funeral in a body and that a copy of this preamble and resolutions be spread upon our minutes and be published in the daily press of this city."

14 West 117th St., New York City.

Dear Sir:

Oct. 15th, 1990.

"I had been suffering severely from kidney trouble. All symptoms were on hand; my former strength and power had left me; I could hardly drag myself along. Even my mental capacity was giving out, and often I wished to die. It was then I saw an advertisement of yours in a New York paper, but would not have paid any attention to it, had it not promised a sworn guarantee with every bottle of your medicine, asserting that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable, and does not contain any harmful drugs. I am seventy years and four months old, and with a good conscience I can recommend Swamp-Root to all sufferers from kidney troubles. Four members of my family have been using Swamp-Root for four different kidney diseases, with the same good results.

"With many thanks to you, I remain,
